No purchase necessary. But I do suggest you invest some time and energy!

Each year I hear comments from youth pastors wishing others from their youth pastor network could join us at our fall youth convention. Well this year, I'm putting out a little incentive to help motivate all youth convention "veterans" to recruit some "rookies."

So here's an attempt to help motivate our youth leaders to get additional promotional resources, make personal phone calls, take leaders out for a cup of coffee, help others make hotel reservations, and hold their hand while they cross the street in order to impact as many teenagers as possible through our youth convention.

If you happen to be one of the new groups coming, you are eligible to win the iPad as well. Just start recruiting leaders and complete the form.

Quite simply, the youth pastor that recruits the most first-time-group involvement wins!

Here's how it works.

1. The new group registers their own leadership and students using the convention forms (new groups can be non-AG or AG in affiliation provide they have not attended youth convention in the last 3 years: 2007, 2008, 2009)
2. The veteran leader submits the following page stating the names and information of the leaders they have recruited
3. The youth leader with the most names recruited and attending wins

Prize Description

Winning youth pastor receives 1 (one) 16GB Wi-Fi enabled Apple iPad. Winner will be announced and awarded after the conclusion of youth convention.

This announcement will not be made publicly during convention but will be announced after convention through the sdyce blog.

NOTE: Should there be a tie with less than 10 total new groups we will draw names from a hat. Should there be a tie with more than 10 total new groups additional iPads will be given. Should we have no new groups recruited the iPad becomes the property of the DYD to do with as he pleases. ;)

In the event two leaders recruit the same new group, the leader's entry form received first will receive credit for that group over ones received later. Completed iPad entry forms must be submitted before the close of group check in on November 19th. After group check-in begins submitted forms may not be changed.

New Group Information: Please only include groups you have contacted and know are attending convention. It is important that each new group completes their own registration forms and hotel arrangements for accurate verification.

Leader Name	Church Name and City	Phone	Leader Email	Estimated Attending

I certify that I have personally recruited the above listed groups and to the best of my knowledge know them to be first time groups and to be attending. I understand these groups are subject to verification with the records held at the SDAG YCE office.
